WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 1917

PRICE TEN CENTS

REGISTRATION EFFECTED VERY LITTLE TROUBLE

Washington, June 7.—At noon today only half a dozen states had complete registration returns.

Washington, June 6.—There have been no serious disturbances throughout the nation on account of registration, save Butte foreign miners and Indians in Arizona.

Butte, Montana, June 5.—This city is practically under martial law tonight as the result of riots which arose over a parade of men and women carrying banners labelled "Down with war." A riot was precipitated when crowds of people protested against the parade but the most exciting moment came when the police attempted to arrest the parade leaders and lost control of the situation and were compelled to call the soldiers. The military restored order but are now patrolling the streets to prevent a recurrence of the disorder.

In Arizona the Navajo and Ute Indians refused to register and drove the government officials from the reservation.

Washington, June 6.—Reports on the registration are being assembled tonight. The returns indicate a highly satisfactory enrollment.

Seattle, June 6.—Seattle registered 26,000 for the selective draft.

Newcastle, June 7.—Seven coal miners were arrested at the mouth of a pit for failing to register. Seventy other miners refused to register. All foreigners.

London, June 7.—The British have thrown back the Germans south of the Scarpe river capturing positions along a front of more than a mile.

London, June 7.—For the week ending last night fifteen British vessels of over sixteen hundred tons were sunk.

Washington, June 8.—The President has urged the leaders to hasten legislation for food control. He fears that the European nations' rush to buy may send prices out of reason.

PARIS, June 7.—American warships have arrived off the French coast. The collier Jupiter is discharging wheat at a French port for American troops. The work of provisioning the army is well under way.

London, June 7.—The War office announced this morning that the British swept forward last night in Belgium on a nine mile front taking many prisoners.

Olympia, June 7.—The Secretary of State announced that a check of the referendum vote showed that 533 names more are necessary. The attorney general ruled that the bone dry measure is now held up until the 1918 election.

New York, June 7.—The American Medical Association has passed a resolution urging the people to eat less meat, and more corn, rice, and barley products as substitutes.

London, June 7.—Two persons were killed and thirty wounded in a German aeroplane raid on the river Thames.

Washington, June 7.—Delegate Chas. A. Sulzer has asked the Western Department to reserve room next to the officers' training camp at San Francisco for candidates from Alaska. The Delegate wishes to have it so arranged that the physical examination can be conducted in Alaska.

Washington, June 4.—The First National Guard of Alaska is to be organized at once according to instructions issued today by the War Department. United States Marshal J. M. Tanner, who was confirmed last Saturday, and Major P. W. Davison have been instructed to organize the N. G. A. Major Davison, disbursing officer of the Alaska Road Commission, has been instructed to move his headquarters from Valdez to Juneau and at once organize the first guardmen of Alaska.

The National Guard is to be raised generally under the Federal law and particularly under the Territorial law recently passed.

It is expected Major Davison will be named Adjutant General for the Territory of Alaska but for the present he is detailed as Inspector and Instructos.

City of Seattle Sails North

Seattle, June 7.—The City of Seattle sailed for Alaska at ten this morning. Wrangell passengers: M. E. LeBlanc, Fred Maurer, Leo Clark, Adel Hill, Jane Bowers, Sam Cunningham, and Harry J. Wallace.

Miss Estelle Thomas arrived home on the Admiral Evans this morning from Portland where she has been taking a course in pharmacy.

Charged With Sedition

The first arrest in Alaska during the present war on the charge of sedition was made in Juneau this week when William M. Waddleton a colored man was taken into custody. Waddleton was distributing pamphlets in which were contained statements alleged to be in opposition to the army draft law.

Gus M. Elquest of Tokelo took passage on the Jefferson for Seattle.

F. J. Tromblé arrived on the Admiral Evans this morning with a crew of 22 men en route to Craig. Mr. Tromblé is a sawmill man, and it is reported that he is about to close a deal for the mill at Craig. W. C. Waters left with the party on the Glenora this afternoon.

Ship 7000 Cases Salmon

On her trip southbound the Mariposa had on board 7,000 cases of salmon from the Carlisle Packing Company at Cordova.

Petersburg Pastor Resigns (Report)

Rev. Thorvilson has resigned as pastor at Petersburg and will leave the early part of next week to attend the general synod meeting of his church in St. Paul, June 6-15. Rev. Thorvilson's family will remain here for the present, and Mrs. Thorvilson will continue the Sunday school. Candidate Maakestad, who has just graduated from the Luther Seminary, at St. Paul, has been called to Petersburg by the mission board.

Governor Strong Writes to Mayor Matheson Concerning Registration

Mayor Matheson received a letter from Governor Strong under date of May 28, relating to registration for military service. Following are some excerpts from the Governor's letter:

"While only general instructions have been received by this office from the Provost Marshal General, it is expected that complete instructions and the necessary blanks, etc., for registration purposes will arrive at an early date, and this letter is being forwarded to you in order that you may take such initial steps as may be necessary to carry out the intents and purposes of the selective draft or conscription law. The date upon which the registration of all person eligible under this law, namely, between the ages of 21 and 30, both inclusive, will be fixed by a proclamation of the President, due notice of which will be given through this office."

"Get as much publicity as you can without expense as to the age limits, as well as the compulsory feature of the registration. All citizens who have passed their twenty-first birthday and have not yet attained their thirty-first birthday, are required to register on a date to be hereafter named by the President, at the registration office of the precinct in which is located their permanent homes. A willful neglect or refusal of any person who has reached the age of 21 years but who is under 31 years of age, to register on the date of registration, is a crime punishable by imprisonment for one year, without the alternative of a fine, and all 'slackers' will be duly prosecuted. Persons sick or unavoidably away from home may register by mail by obtaining, in advance, a card, filling the same out properly and mailing it to the board of supervisors of their home town or judicial division, so as to reach the board in due course."

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS TWO NEW TEACHERS

The School Board have elected Miss Edith Carhart principal of the Wrangell public school for the coming term. Miss Carhart is not a stranger in Wrangell, having been principal of the school here during the term of 1909-10. She was re-elected but preferred to return to the States. She has had 17 years experience, and always been reelected wherever she has taught. For the past three years she has been principal of the Fobes school at Snohomish, Wash. She is a daughter of Mr. Joseph Carhart who has a third of a century of educational experience to his credit, 15 years of which were spent as a normal school president.

Miss Tressa Curtin has been elected teacher of the primary department. Miss Curtin has had 11 years as a teacher, seven of which were spent in the Fobes school at Snohomish. She has worked with Miss Carhart for the past three years. She is highly recommended.

Miss Carhart and Miss Curtin had both been reelected in the Snohomish school for another year, but preferred to come to Alaska.

A primary teacher has not yet been selected.

Leave for Cordova

Charlie McDonald left this week with the Inverness for Juneau from which port they will clear for Cordova. He took with them a logging outfit and will engage in logging to the westward for the Cordova Mill company.

ENGINEERS' REPORT ON DRY STRAITS

Results of Survey Indicate That a Deep Channel Can Be Dredged Through Strait at a Very Moderate Cost.

In response to a request made by the Sentinel to Delegate Sulzer several copies of the Engineers' Report on the Dry Straits project were received in Wrangell this week. The report contains 14 pages printed in small type, a considerable portion of which embraces data with which Wrangell people are already familiar. The most important part of the report is the report of Lieut.-Col. J. B. Cavanaugh, Corps of Engineers, which is as follows:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
UNITED STATES
ENGINEER OFFICE

To: The Chief of Engineers,
United States Army.

1. In compliance with instructions contained in letter from the office of the Chief of Engineers, dated April 5, 1916, the following report, with maps, upon survey of Dry Straits, Alaska, is submitted.

2. The survey was commenced on May 22, 1916 and completed on August 9, 1916.

3. The object of the survey was to determine the amount and character of material to be removed to provide a suitable ship canal connecting Summer Straits with Frederick Sound, and the probable character and effects of tidal currents in the channel after completion.

4. The route of the proposed canal was sounded in detail and the cross sections were extended to cover, in general way, the tide flats in the vicinity. Borings with a water jet were made to investigate the character of material to be removed and to determine whether or not any rock would be encountered in dredging the canal or in its subsequent enlargement. The material found was fine sand silt, which can be readily excavated by a hydraulic dredge at small cost. No rock was found within the proposed canal limits, and no indication that it would be encountered in any reasonable enlargement of the canal in future.

5. The tidal data required were obtained from simultaneous readings of tide gauges in Summer Straits and Frederick Sound. These data indicate a nearly constant difference of head between Frederick Sound and Summer Straits at about 14 inches both during flood and ebb tides. This head will produce a current through the canal after completion of from 1 to 2 miles per hour.

The mean tidal range is 13.8 feet. The maximum tidal range is 25.5 feet.

The mean tidal level is 8.1 feet above mean lower low water.

The highest known tide is 21.3 feet above mean lower low water.

The lowest known tide is 4.2 feet below mean lower low water.

6. The results of the survey indicate that a deep channel can be dredged through Dry Straits at reasonable cost, and that there will probably be sufficient current through completed channel to reduce the maintenance cost to a minimum providing a dike is constructed from Dry to Wilson Islands to cut off the discharge from Sukine River with its silt,

NOTICE

A mass meeting of citizens is hereby called for the evening of Wednesday, June 13, at the town hall, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of taking steps for a Fourth of July celebration in Wrangell.

F. MATHESON, Mayor.

and confine the tidal currents to the dredged channel.

7. A channel 26 feet deep at mean lower low water, 200 feet on the bottom, with proper side slopes and easements at bends will meet the requirements of present commerce. As the material to be excavated is suitable for filling the protecting dike can be constructed by the deposit of this material in the form of a broad levee well above high-tide level. This levee could be protected and preserved by marsh grass and willows such as cover the Sukine River delta. As the tide flats are exposed during the lower stages of the tide and no excessive currents are anticipated the bulkheads required for the fill should be simple and inexpensive. The use of a low bulkhead for toe of slopes and flashboards to regulate the filling will be sufficient for a large part of the dike, but the estimate provides for constructing the ordinary two or three step timber type of bulkhead on the channel side of the entire fill should this be necessary. The length of the proposed channel will be approximately 47,800 feet, and of the dike 31,600 feet.

8. Estimates.

By contract:
Dredging 12,000,000 cubic yards sand, at 12 cents	$1,440,000
Construction of 31,600 foot dike, at $7	221,200
	$1,661,200
Superintendence and contingencies, about 20 per cent	333,800
	$2,000,000

It is believed that while the cost of maintaining the dike and channel might be large until conditions had become permanent, it would eventually be quite small. The cost is estimated at $100,000 the first year, $50,000 the second year, and $300,000 per annum thereafter.

9. In view of the present large and increasing commerce of Alaska, the construction and maintenance of a canal at Dry Straits is in accordance with the liberal policy of Congress adopted with reference to the development of Alaska, and is recommended. In my opinion, the investigation of this route has shown it to be superior to Wrangell Narrows for improvement as a route for deep draft vessels. It is shorter, will afford equal facilities at much less cost, can be deepened economically to any desired extent, and the danger to navigation from ice does is considered little if any greater than by Wrangell Narrows.

10. The execution of the work above recommended, if authorized, should be provided for by an initial appropriation of $500,000, and a continuing contract authorization for the remainder.

J. B. CAVANAUGH,
Lieutenant Colonel,
Corps of Engineers.

BIG DRIVE WEEK FOR RED CROSS

Local Chapter Will Do Its Full Share Toward Raising One Hundred Million Dollars Required for the War Fund.

June 18-25 has been set aside for the Big Drive for one hundred million dollars for the Red Cross war fund.

"IMMEDIATELY is the great word as we contemplate the week of June 18-25, which President Wilson has set aside for the nation-wide campaign for one hundred million dollars for the Red Cross war fund of the war council which the President recently appointed." All firms, lodges, fraternal organizations, clubs and commercial organizations to fall in line is an important feature of this great Red Cross Rush Drive.

At present the Wrangell Chapter numbers about 184.

During Big Drive week there will be a house to house canvass; if we are to favorably compete with our sister chapters in this great work our number of associates must swell into the hundreds.

It is hoped that this committee will meet with the earnest, ready, and willing response on the part of every man, woman, and child, as has heretofore been accorded the Red Cross workers.

This is a work that vitally touches every individual in our country.

"The International Conference of Geneva held in 1863, recommended 'That there exist in every country a committee whose mission consists in co-operating in times of war with the hospital service of the armies by all means in its power.'"

The Geneva Convention of 1864 and the Geneva Convention of 1906, revised the treaty of Geneva (called the Red Cross Treaty) and gave definite status to certain officially recognized volunteer aid societies. These societies, because of the character of the badge, a red cross on a white ground, are universally known as Red Cross Societies.

The last week in June will be observed as Big Drive week.

In reality this will be a big drive against autocracy. It affects you. Make it a personal matter.

Shoulder a just share of the responsibility of raising this hundred million dollar fund.

CHAIRMAN,
Publicity Committee, Wrangell Chapter of the Red Cross Society.

CAPTAIN J. G. GRANT'S TITLE IS EXPLAINED

(Petersburg Report)

Headed by Captain John Grant, Wrangell neighbors to the number of about thirty, came over on the Havel B. last Saturday evening. An impromptu dance was arranged for their entertainment. They started for home the next morning, and all very apparently enjoyed the trip and visit. Captain Grant's title, it should be explained, is military, and not of the nautical order so plentiful in this region. He is captain of the militia company recently organized at Wrangell town.

Minimum Rate of Pay With Bonus on Earnings Would Prevent Railway Wage Disputes

By B. F. YOAKUM, Former President St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad

AN established schedule of compensation for railroad employees, with a minimum rate of pay to each class, and, in addition thereto, the employees to participate on the basis of earnings, so that they would benefit by prosperous years and stand a downward scale in lean years until the agreed minimum is reached, would result in the division of the dollar in good and bad times alike.

At first blush this would appear to establish irregular pay on the different railroads, but such would not be the case. A MINIMUM RATE OF PAY WOULD BE ESTABLISHED TO ALL ALIKE AND THEIR PARTICIPATING BENEFITS AS THEY HELPED TO INCREASE EARNINGS.

This would create an incentive for the two million employees who would share in the increased earnings of the respective railroads to work for larger earnings. The increased earnings to both the railroads and their employees would be measured by what both could do to increase earnings by working together.

The employees would automatically become owners of a beneficial interest in the railroads and would work for increased earnings, which would mean more profit to themselves.

ALL DICKERING AND STRIKES OVER THE DIVISION OF EARNINGS WOULD CEASE.

American Needs Mobilization of the Spirit to Compete With Purified Europe

By Dr. JOHN H. FINLEY, President of University of State of New York

ALL those who have watched with seeing eyes and understanding minds the sunrise, though terrible, drama enacted in Europe have reported not that nations are being decimated or destroyed, but that new and greater nations are being born. Nation after nation rises to unexampled heights of self sacrifice, arduous toil, simple living and uncomplaining dying. THE SPIRITUAL AS WELL AS THE MATERIAL LIFE OF THE NATIONS AT WAR IS BEING TRANSMUTED INTO SOMETHING DIFFERENT AND MORE PRECIOUS.

The spirit which has walked through this hell in Europe is the guide to the superstate which our own country is even now so anxiously seeking for it is indeed searching for the way of salvation, from its inefficiencies of government, from its multiform public and private wastes, from its class materialism, from its class hatreds, from its ignorances and its intemperances.

WE SHALL HAVE AS A PEOPLE TO COMPETE WHEN THIS WAR IS OVER WITH PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN PURIFIED AS BY FIRE.

And if we are to rise to the struggle of that exalted competition we must take lessons of their "mobilization" of spirit, which has attended the mobilization of armies. Let us "mobilize," for defense first of that through which we can alone express the ideals of the new world, the nation itself, but beyond that, beyond the mere preservation and perpetuation of its life, mobilize for the assurance of the nobility of that life which we are prepared to defend.

DOWNER TRANSFERRED TO INTERIOR ALASKA

Home Guard and Boy Scouts Lose Their Drill Master.

Arthur J. Downer, who has been connected with the local office of the Alaska Signal Corps of the United States Army for the past six months, has been transferred to Tanana, Interior Alaska, and will leave on the City of Seattle for his new post of duty.

Since the organization of the Wrangell home guard Mr. Downer has rendered invaluable service as drill master. He has also done good work in drilling the Boy Scouts. His unselfishness and patriotism have been shown by his willingness to do this work in addition to his regular duties.

Mr. Downer has made a host of friends in Wrangell. And when it became known that he was to be transferred there was general regret. Efforts were made to have him retained at Wrangell, but unfortunately these efforts were unavailing.

The following letter was received this morning:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
SIGNAL CORPS U. S. ARMY.
Seattle, June 1, 1917.
To: Rev. H. P. Corser,
St. Philip's Church,
Wrangell, Alaska.
Subject: Commendation of Corporal Downer.

It gives me much pleasure to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 28, commending Corporal A. J. Downer, for his voluntary service in connection with instruction of the Home Guard of Wrangell, and to express my regret that it has been necessary to remove him from Wrangell to another station.

B. O. LENOIR,
Major, Signal Corps.

An annual event that is looked forward to each year with pleasant anticipation is the Redmen's Fourth of July ball. At the meeting of the Redmen Tuesday night it was decided that the lodge would not give a ball this year. This action was taken on account of it having been learned that the ladies of the Red Cross desired this date to give a benefit ball.

Joslyn-McKinney

McKinney received a cablegram from their daughter stating that she arrived at Valdez Monday afternoon and was married Monday evening to Mr. Harley Joslyn.

The bride's friends in Wrangell were disappointed that the wedding did not take place here, but Cupid chooses his own location for staging his little performances. Mr. Joslyn, the groom, is a young machinist in the employ of the Valdez Packing Co.

Capt. Frank Farrar of the Vermont at Okeene was a south-bound passenger on the Jefferson this morning.
